

An Extraordinary Life Awaits You

Welcome to Burradoo Residences.

A limited collection of six boutique hotel-inspired suites in a supportive living environment.

Located in the quiet and picturesque Burradoo neighbourhood in the Southern Highlands, Burradoo Residences offers a shared home environment designed for people who value quality, discretion and a more supported way of living — with optional services available by arrangement.

The residence has been thoughtfully designed to balance beautiful interiors with a relaxed, welcoming and hospitality-led approach, creating a setting where daily life feels natural, comfortable and genuinely personal.

A Peaceful Highlands Setting

Set within the picturesque village of Burradoo in the heart of the Southern Highlands, Burradoo Residences enjoys a peaceful neighbourhood setting while remaining closely connected to the vibrant lifestyle of nearby Bowral.

Just minutes from Bowral's charming high street, residents can enjoy boutique shopping, cafés, galleries and local dining, along with everyday services and community facilities.

Surrounded by natural beauty and a welcoming local community, Burradoo offers a relaxed and refined setting for long-term living, with the convenience of town life close at hand.

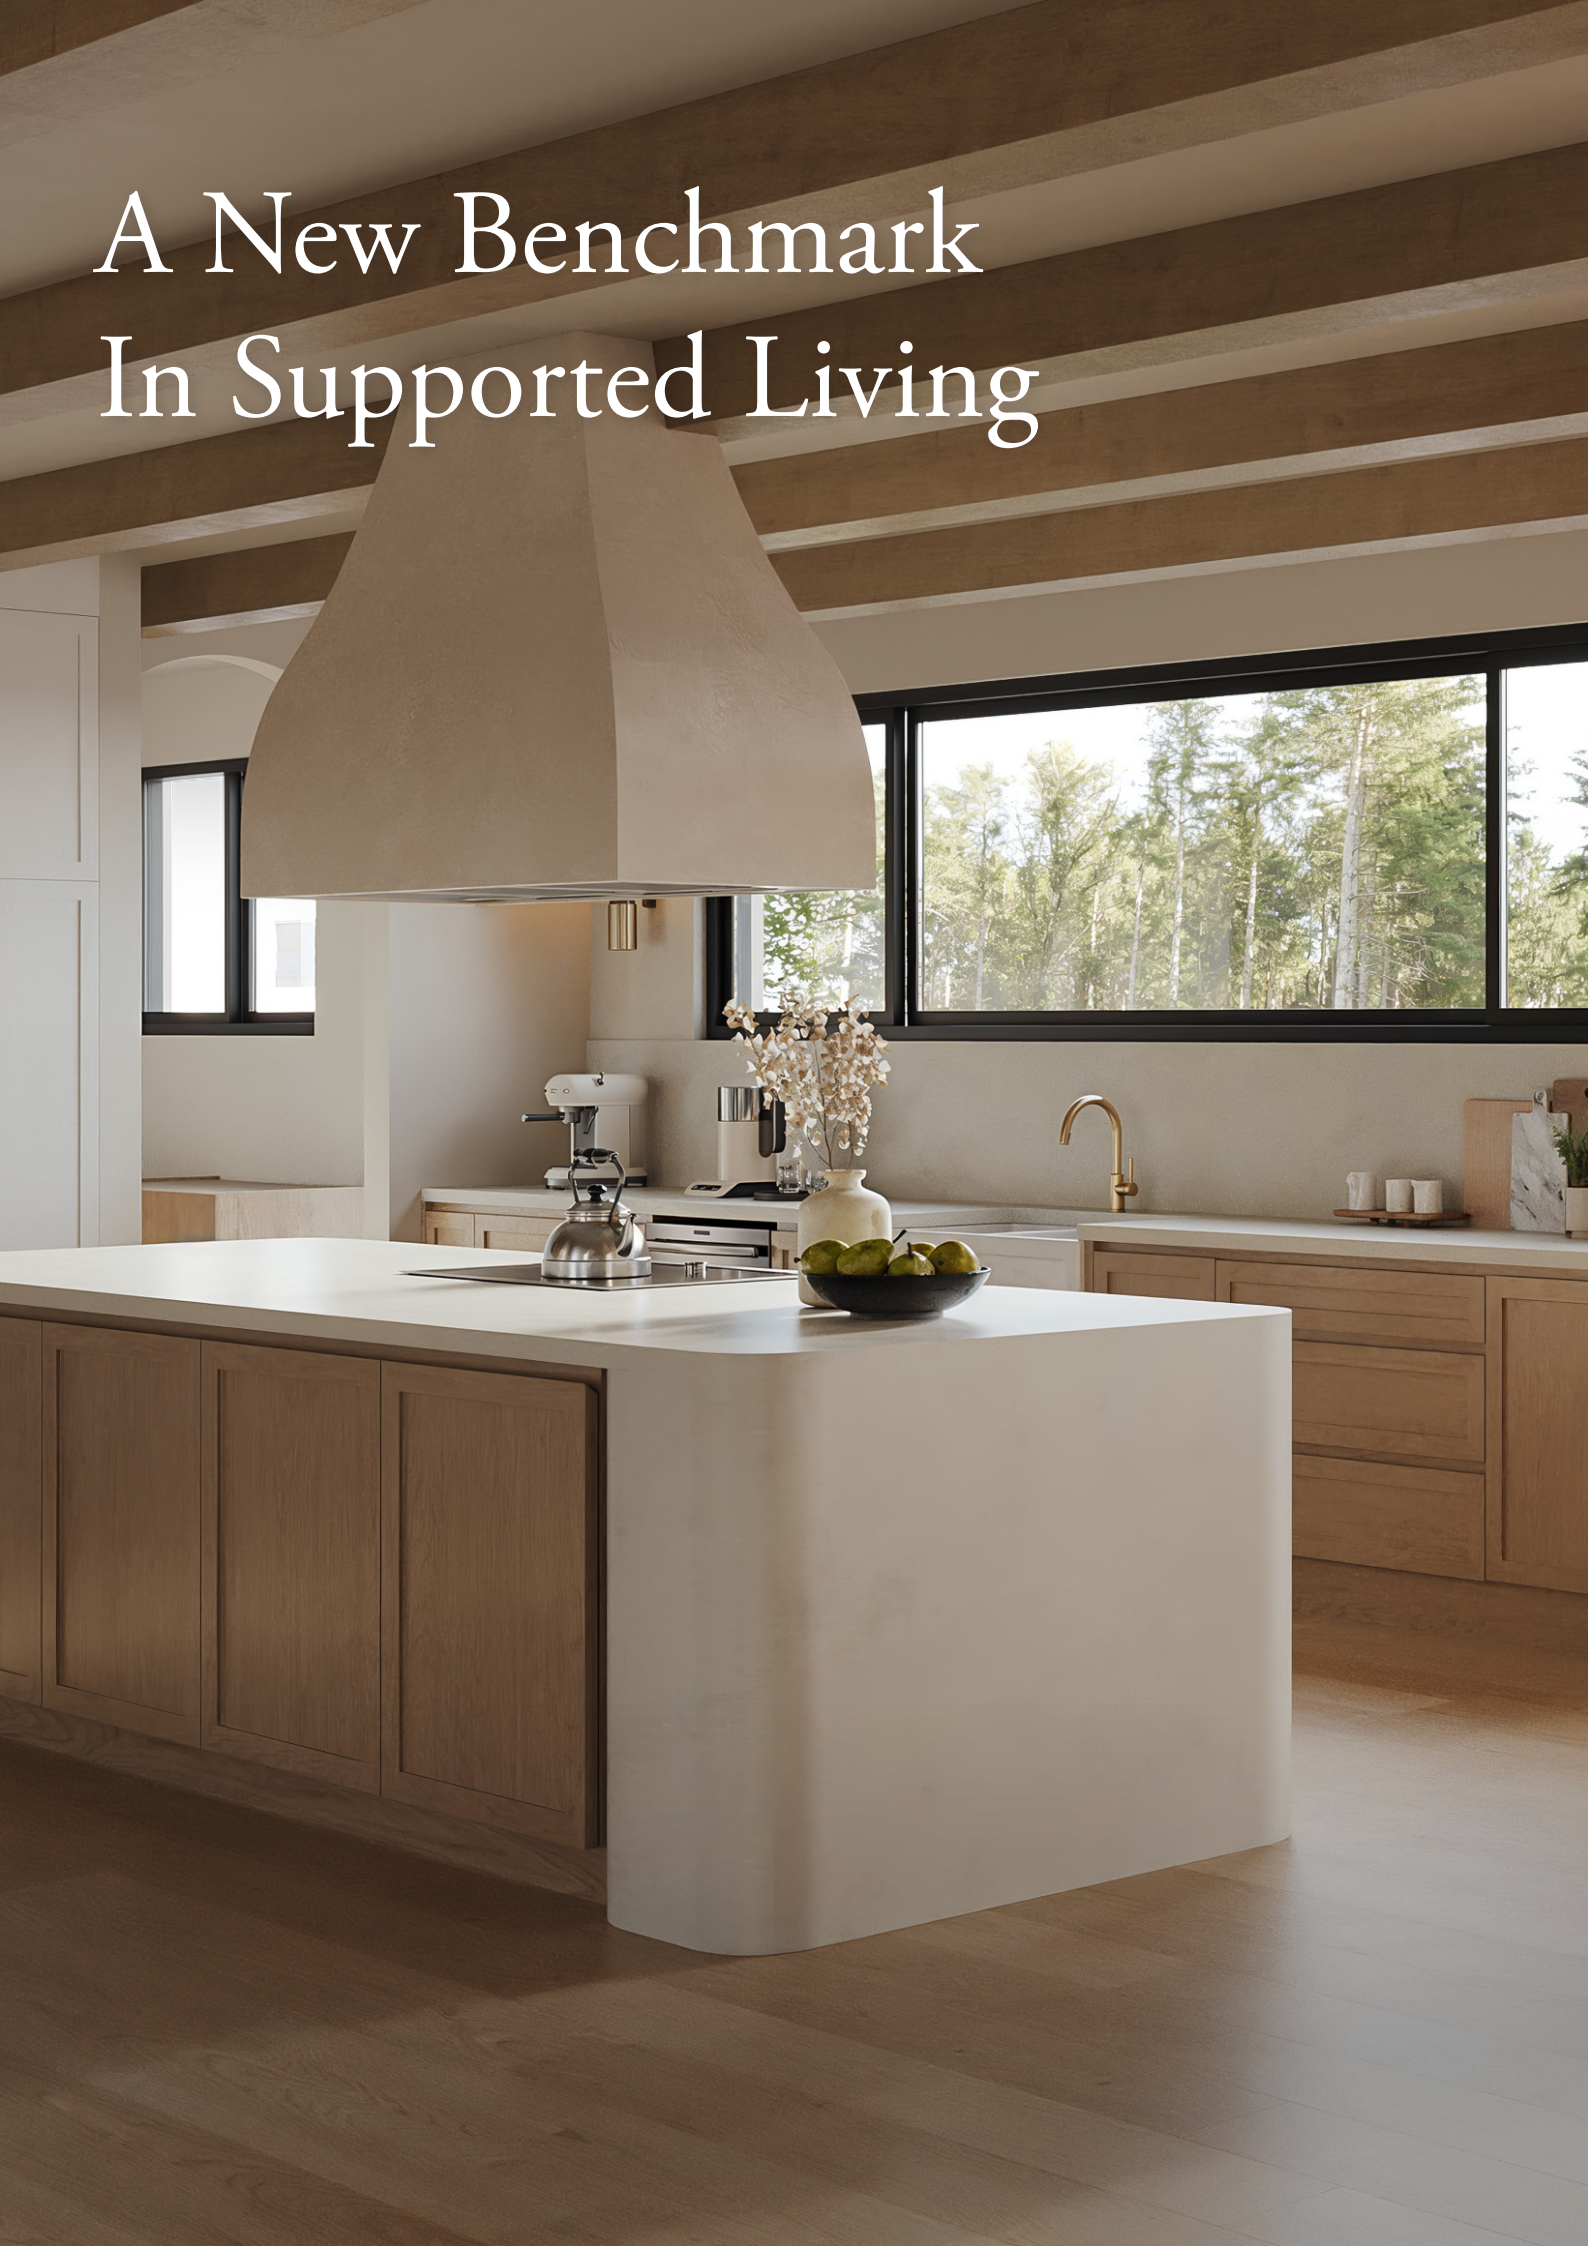

Boutique Living

With just six private luxury suites, Burradoo Residences offers a highly personal living environment where people can enjoy both independence and the ease of living alongside others in a welcoming home.

The small number of residents allows for a more attentive and considered experience — where familiar faces, shared moments and a sense of belonging naturally become part of everyday life.

A New Benchmark In Supported Living

Providing Unparalleled
Luxury And Comfort

Supported Living

Supported living, shaped around how you want to live.

Burradoo Residences has been created for people who want to continue living life on their own terms, while having access to practical assistance and services.

Daily life is guided by your preferences and routines.

Support services can be arranged when and if you choose, allowing your living experience to remain flexible and responsive as circumstances change.

Burradoo Residences is designed for long-term supported living that feels settled, familiar and relaxed.

From warm and welcoming lounges and dining to quiet spaces for reading, conversation or reflection, the residence offers a balanced environment that supports both social connection and personal time.

The Collection of Suites

The luxury suites offer residents a timeless experience and tranquil retreat designed for every day comfort and enjoyment.

Soft colours carefully considered finishes, and a well-planned layout create a calm and welcoming space that supports relaxed living.

Each suite provides a personal place to unwind and feel at home, while shared areas remain close by for dining, conversation and time spent with others.

*With only six suites, Burradoo is more than a residence.
It's an invitation to something truly extraordinary.*

Support Services

Support, coordinated to suit your lifestyle.

At Burradoo Residences, support is centred on making everyday life easier and more manageable.

The team can assist in coordinating services and practical help that align with your needs and preferences.

Support options may include:

- Coordination of day-to-day services and practical assistance
- Arranging visiting services and external providers
- Support to help maintain daily routines and move comfortably through the home
- Assistance with organising appointments and transport
- Encouragement that supports confidence, choice and independence as your personal preference and needs change

Additional services can be arranged over time, allowing your living arrangements to adapt while maintaining the familiarity and comfort of your home.

Confidence for you.

Reassurance for those close to you.

Peace of Mind

Burradoo Residences offers a calm and respectful home environment where people feel they can live life with purpose.

Families value the small and personal nature of the residence, while residents appreciate the balance of independence, everyday support and shared living.

As personal circumstances change, services can be arranged to provide additional assistance, without disrupting established routines or the feeling of home.

Our Location

Burradoo Residences is set in one of the region's most desirable areas – just minutes from Bowral's cafés, galleries, medical services, and local community life.

Surrounded by nature, yet connected to everything, it's the perfect blend of peaceful seclusion and everyday amenity.

Discover the Burradoo Difference

At Burradoo, we honour the past while embracing the future — creating a legacy of sophisticated living where residents thrive in an environment that nurtures wellbeing, comfort, and connection.

Where community, care, and luxury come together.
